

Abstract of the Disclosure

Compounds in which a pyrimidine nucleus is bridged at the 5 and 6 position and are further substituted at positions 2 and 4 with substituents comprising aromatic moieties are useful in treating subjects with conditions ameliorated by inhibition of TGF $\beta$  activity.